

Commentary on the Pledge of Allegiance

On January 14, 1969, comedian Red Skelton touched the hearts of Americans with his "Pledge of Allegiance." Skelton's pledge was read into the Congressional Record of the United States twice and received numerous awards. This Fourth of July holiday I invite you to take a moment to reflect on Skelton's words, explaining each word of "The Pledge of Allegiance." I guarantee the next time you pledge your allegiance, you will recite the words with a new perspective, a deeper meaning, and a greater respect.

As a schoolboy, one of Red Skelton's teachers explained the words and meaning of the "Pledge of Allegiance" to his class. Skelton later wrote down, and eventually recorded, his recollection of this lecture. It is followed by an observation of his own.

I -- Me; an individual; a committee of one.

Pledge -- Dedicate all of my worldly goods to give without self-pity.

Allegiance -- My love and my devotion.

To the Flag -- Our standard; Old Glory; a symbol of Freedom; wherever she waves there is respect, because your loyalty has given her dignity that shouts, "Freedom is everybody's job."

United -- That means that we have all come together.

States -- Individual communities that have united into 48 great states. Forty-eight individual communities with pride and dignity and purpose. All divided with imaginary boundaries, yet united to a common purpose, and that is love for country.

And to the Republic -- Republic--a state in which sovereign power is invested in representatives chosen by the people to govern. And government is the people; and it's from the people to the leaders, not the leaders to the people.

For which it stands

One Nation -- One Nation--meaning so blessed by God.

Indivisible -- Incapable of being divided.

With Liberty -- Which is Freedom; the right of power to live one's own life, without threats, fear or some sort of retaliation.

And Justice -- The principle, or qualities, of dealing fairly with others.

For all -- which means, it's as much your country as it is mine.

And now, boys and girls, let me hear you recite the "Pledge of Allegiance":

I pledge allegiance to the Flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands; one nation, indivisible, with liberty and justice for all.

Since I was a small boy, two states have been added to our country, and two words have been added to the "Pledge of Allegiance": Under God. Wouldn't it be a pity if someone said that is a prayer, and that would be eliminated from schools, too?
